

Château Escalette

Vineyard

This 15-hectare Château is one of the Richard family's first purchases in the 1950s. Today managed by François Clauzel, the grapes are worked and carefully cultivated to obtain a wine in the Côtes de Bourg tradition, full and silky.

Tasting

A pretty wine with a purple color. We discover the intensity of the nose of very ripe red fruits, with nuances of strawberry and raspberry. Its suppleness, its mid-palate volume combined with a finish with fine tannins give the whole a delicious profile.

Grape variety:

65% Merlot, 23% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Malbec

Taste and flavor: Soft and velvety

Alcohol content: 13.5°

Allergen: Sulphites

Service advice

This wine is drunk at 16°C and is ideal with grilled red meats.
