

Château Pouyanne

Bordeaux - Graves AOP

Vineyard

Château Pouyanne is made up of a 55 hectare vineyard located on a gravel plateau 40km south-east of Bordeaux, in the town of Budos. This family property benefits from a very beautiful gravel terroir where the stones are always coated with clay and sand. This makes it possible to obtain supple and aromatic red wines that can be enjoyed young.

Winemaking

Vinification is traditional, taking place in stainless steel vats. The wine is then aged for 12 months in oak barrels before bottling.

Tasting

The dress is garnet color. The nose opens with a bouquet combining minerality with aromas of fruit cream (blackberry, blackcurrant, morello cherry). The palate is both oily and delicious, generous in red fruits, with notes of beautiful freshness, punctuated by a smooth and easy-drinking finish.

FEATURES

Grape variety: 65% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon

Taste and flavor: Soft and velvety

Alcohol content: 13°

Allergen: Sulphites

Service advice

Serve with snails with garlic cream, an oven-baked shoulder of lamb, a barbecued steak or even a chicken tagine.
