

Domaine des Acanthes - Minervois

Château Faisteau was founded in 1920. Located in La Livinière in Haut Minervois, it extends over the first foothills of the Montagne Noire, where the land benefits from privileged sunshine and an exceptional terroir. Jean-Michel Arnaud is the owner of these 16 hectares of vines.

Tasting

This wine offers a deep ruby color. Its nose is dense and complex, with a floral, spicy and fruity side. On the palate, it has a beautiful concentrated and complex whole, with a frank attack with dense, creamy and voluminous tannins. In the finish, we find spices and macerated fruits accompanied by notes of mocha and coffee bean.

Grape variety:

70% Syrah, 15% Carignan, 15% Grenache

Taste and flavor: Soft and velvety

Alcohol content: 13.5°

Allergen: Sulphites

Service advice

Serve it at 16°C with game and red meats in simmered sauces. It will also go well with tagines and cooked cheeses.
