

Minuty Prestige Rouge

Located on the Saint-Tropez peninsula, the property was built at the time of Napoleon III. It was only in 1936 that Gabriel Farnet acquired it to found Minuty. In 1960, Monique Farnet took over the family business, with her husband Étienne Matton. Today, it is the turn of Jean-Etienne and François Matton to manage the family property. By renewing the vineyard and equipping the castle with cutting-edge technology, the current owners are perpetuating the production of quality wines initiated 80 years ago. Even though Minuty is primarily known for its rosés, it also stands out by offering red wines.

This wine has a purple color with black reflections. It reveals an intense nose with aromas of stone fruits, vanilla and gingerbread. It is structured, with aromas of candied fruits and spices, with a lingering finish.
