

Le Dragon is the second wine of Château Quintus. The origin of the name comes from the statue of the dragon which dominates the magical terroir of Saint-Emilion, perched on the promontory where the estate is located.

Beautiful red color, with purple highlights.

The first nose, fresh and pleasant, immediately evokes red fruits.

Very light woody, vanilla and delicate note.

On the palate, this Dragon de Quintus is fresh, with a very pleasant fruitiness. The tannins are coated, ripe. Of medium length, the wine is perfectly balanced.

Spring 2018 was marked by regular storm rains. The vines developed a beautiful vegetative surface, but their growth was slowed down by the violent disturbance of May 26. However, she recovered quickly. The month of June is mild, allowing uniform flowering. A hot summer followed, associated with rare precipitation. Veraison takes place in very good conditions. In September, the anticyclone sets in. We harvest under a radiant sun, all the grape varieties are picked at maturity, the health condition is perfect
